

Famous people

- She (to be) ... the fifth and the youngest child of two teachers from Poland.
- She (to study) ... at the Flying University.
- In 1891 she (to move) ... to Paris, where she (to enroll)... at the Sorbonne.
- She (to get) ... married to a scientist.
- She (to receive) ... Nobel Prizes for two different sciences: physics and chemistry.
- Her daughter (to win) ... the Nobel Prize.
- Her notes (not to stop) ... being radioactive.
- She (to add) ... two elements to the periodic table.

- She (to have) ... serious family problems in her childhood.
- Her true name (to be) ... Norma Jeane Mortenson.
- She (to get) ... married to a famous writer and (to read) ... a lot of books.
- She (to sing) ... "Happy Birthday" to President Kennedy in 1962.
- The rumour (to say) ... that she (to have) ... a love affair with the President.
- She (to lose) ... a few pregnancies and that (to make) ... her very sad.
- She (to star) ... a lot of films and (to become) an icon of Pop culture.
- She (to overdo) ... drugs.

- He (to receive) ... formal education as the first person in his family.
- He (to spend) ... nearly 27 years of his lifetime in jail and (to be) ... called the world's most famous prisoner.
- He (to become) ... South Africa's first black president in 1994.
- He (to fight) ... for the rights of minorities.
- He (to win) ... the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993.
- He (to make) ... a lot of motivational speeches.
- He (to spread) ... awareness of Aids in South Africa.
- He (to spend) ... his last days at home with his family and (to die) ... in December 2013.

Famous people

- He (to be) ... born in Germany to a Jewish family.
- He (not to speak) ... at all until he (to finish) ... the age of three.
- In his childhood he (to spend) ... long hours working on puzzles and complex structures from blocks or cards.
- At school, he (not to be) ... considered a very good student, but he (to become) ... the world's most famous scientist.
- He (to receive) ... his Nobel Prize in 1919.
- He (to have) ... citizenship in four countries: Germany, Israel, Switzerland and the United States of America
- He (to make) ... the most known equation $E=mc^2$.
- One of the periodic table elements (to be) ... named to commemorate him.

- He (to be) ... born in London, Britain, but (to die) ... in Switzerland.
- He (to revolutionize) ... cinematography, because he (to play in) ... and (to direct) ... a lot of silent films and talkies.
- In the first year of filmmaking, he (to make) ... 35 films.
- He (to do) ... everything himself, because he (to be) ... a perfectionist.
- He (to become) ... famous of the mustache he (to wear)
- One of the Russian woman astronomers (to name) ... a minor planet after his name.
- Two men, one Polish, one Bulgarian (to rob) ... his grave and (to steal) ... his body for the ransom.
- One of his most famous films is "The Great Dictator", where he (to satirize) ... Hitler.

- She (to be) ... born in 1910.
- Her father (to die) ... when she (to be) ... eight and her mother (to raise) ... her alone.
- She (to become) ... world's most famous nun.
- For many years, she (to teach) ... and (to help) ... the poorest in India.
- She (to win) ... the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979.
- She (to leave) ... home at the age of 18 and never (to see) ... her mother or sister again after becoming a missionary.
- She (to be) ... beatified and later (to canonize) ... in 2016, so she is considered a saint. of Aids in South Africa.
- She (to work) ... for the poor till she (to die) ... in 1997.

Famous people

- He (to get) ... adopted after birth.
- He (to move) ... to Los Angeles, because he (to be) ... bullied at school.
- He (to graduate) ... from high school, but (to drop) ... out of college.
- He (to work) ... for Atari, (to have) ... a summer job in Hewlett Packard and (to get) ... fired from Apple.
- He (to be) ... one the youngest people to make the Forbes list.
- He (to suffer) ... from cancer and a few years (to die) ... in his home surrounded by his family.
- In his adolescence, he (to go) ... to India and (to immerse) ... himself in Buddhism.
- He (to become) ... world's most famous entrepreneur, visionary, and innovator.

- She (to be) ... born in 1858 in Manchester, England.
- Her parents (to send) ... her to France, where she (to finish) ... school.
- She (to form) ... the women movement called the suffragette in 1903, they (to fight) ... for women's rights.
- She often (to break) ... the law, (to be) ... arrested and many times and (to go) ... on hunger strikes in prison.
- All her daughters (to be) ... involved in the suffragette movement as well.
- She (to die) ... at the age of 69 in 1928, three weeks later women (to get) ... equal right to men.
- Her husband (to be) ... 24 years older than her.
- She (to travel) ... to many countries.

- She (to be) ... born in a small town in England.
- She (to have) ... an unhappy marriage and (to become) ... a single mother at the age of 28.
- She (to suffer) ... from severe depression.
- Now she is a billionaire, but in the past she (to live) ... on benefits.
- She (to write) a series of fantasy books and (to revive) ... literacy among young people.
- She (to sign) ... her books with a pseudonym.
- She (to work) ... as an English teacher in Portugal.
- She (to get) ... an Order of the British Empire.

